GRACE POEMS - Berean Bible Society

Out of which the Father is forming the Saviour's precious bride
And so they twist and try to change the word which Christ did say
Shall long endure the dying world and never pass away
O, sinner, come and see thyself a lost and ruined soul,
And hear the words of Jesus Christ, "Thy faith hath made thee whole"

Interceding for the elderly

Leader: Father of all, you see every one of us as your child, no matter how young or old
You have known us for every second of our lives
You give us every breath, and you sustain us every day
We lift to you now the elderly
Each one is your child, Each one is precious in your sight
