Ruethers' 'The Wrath of Jonah'

The Wrath of Jonah can be faulted on its facts at dozens of points It simply lacks intellectual rigor, sometimes even honesty For instance, Ruether knows very well that NCLCI (the National Christian Leadership Conference for Israel) is a federation of liberal Catholic, liberal Protestant, and conservative Protestant organizations

Outline of the Book of Jonah

The Gentile heathen mariners of Jonah 1 were men who shared only in flesh and blood with Jonah (see Heb 2:14) A peculiar difference between the mariners and Jonah was their value of life While the seas churned by God's wrath for Jonah's sake they feared for their life yet Jonah slept (cf Jonah 1:5-6) When Jonah told the

STUDY GUIDE - Summit View Church

Jonah is often spoken of as if he was a "hero" in the Bible But as we will read and study in the coming weeks, Jonah doesn't actually have many qualities that we would want to emulate In Chapter 1, we see God call Jonah to go to Nineveh and warn them of coming wrath of God Instead fulfilling his calling, Jonah runs in rebellion, causing
